Special Ways To Remember People At Christmas

While many people look forward to Christmas, it can be a time of year that bereaved families dread. Here are some suggestions for ways that you may like to remember a special person at Christmas.

- Set aside a corner of your living room, hall or garden to be a special place for the memories of the person who has died. Maybe you could put a little Christmas tree on a shelf, next to a picture of the person who has died and a candle that can be lit. A chair nearby gives people a chance to take "time out" to think about this person. Younger members of the family can take presents to be opened in this corner.

- Take a Christmas wreath or special card to their grave, or to the resting place of the ashes. Alternatively hang a remembrance card on a memorial tree at Rosedale Funeral Home or in Diss Parish Church.

- Ask other people for their memories of the person who died and begin to compile their 'life story'. If family members are together for Christmas it would be a good opportunity to record these memories. You could include Christmas memories, for example: - 'what was the worst or best Christmas present they ever gave you?' 'What was their favourite part of the day?'

- On the day itself, remind yourself: It's not going to be easy, BUT
 - ~ Tears are not a sign of weakness, but an indication of how special the relationship was
 - ~ I must go easy on myself, and others, and not put too many expectations on the day
 - ~ I will focus on happy memories, not on regrets of the past.

For anyone facing their first Christmas without a loved one, Rosedale has available a small booklet entitled "A not so Jolly Christmas" offering practical advice on reducing pressure, re-evaluating tradition and reliving memories. The booklet is available free of charge from Rosedale Funeral Home.

Over the Christmas and New Year period, funeral directors at Rosedale will be working day and night to ensure that the bereaved receive the same high level of service, providing families with a peaceful atmosphere for making funeral arrangements at the funeral home, or by visiting the bereaved in their own homes. For more information contact any branch of Rosedale Funeral Home or visit www.rosedalefuneralhome.co.uk.

Wenhaston Commons Group

News From The Church

Lots of activity as always at St. Peter's! On 22nd October we organised the refreshments at the Give and Take Day and we are grateful to the Energy Group for giving us this opportunity to raise funds for the Church.

On Saturday 5th November we travelled to Halesworth for our first visit to the Churches Market when together with nine other churches in the Team we had a stall selling a miscellany of goods. Trade was rather slow but I am sure that it will improve when the Market receives more publicity.

The following Saturday the 12th found us serving hot lunches in the Village Hall at our Autumn Fair. A popular and enjoyable event raising £567.19 for Church Funds. Many thanks to the ladies who yet again cooked and produced some delicious food, especially the desserts!

And so to Christmas. We shall be having our usual stall at the Village Bazaar on Saturday 3rd December and we look forward to seeing many customers.

The Village Carol Service will be on Friday 16th December in the Church at 7 o'clock. Please do come and join us and enjoy your favourite Carols and the Mulled Wine and Mince Pies which will be served after the Service.

Carol Singing around the Village will be on Monday 19th December starting at the Village Hall at 6:45pm. Everyone is very welcome to come and sing - Carol Sheets provided and I am certain that there will be refreshments at the end of the evening!

Our Christmas Communion Service will on Christmas Eve starting at 11:30pm in the Church and we invite everyone to join us at this service. On Christmas Morning there will be Informal Worship together with the Methodists at the Chapel commencing at 9:30am.

2012 Diamond Jubilee

Another useful meeting has been held and more ideas discussed for celebrating 60 years of the Queen's reign.

A village party day for all the family is planned for Bank Holiday Monday, June 4th. This event will be on the playingfield, with stalls, music, activities for children, bar etc. There is also a possibility of a Parade. If you have ideas how to help the fun along or if you wish to be involved in any way please come along to the next meeting. It's all up for discussion!

Costs will be kept to a minimum, but there will be costs so please support the fund-raising Photo Competition on 25th March 2012. Details of how to enter will be in next month's Wenhaston Word.

There are also plans for children of the parish to receive a commemorative item - see January 2012 Wenhaston Word to register your child.

Jubilee meetings are open to individuals and representatives of village groups and all input is welcome.

St. Peter's Church will be holding a service and also plan to serve teas on Sunday 3rd June.

The next Jubilee meeting will be at the village hall on Wednesday 8th February. Would representatives of village groups who missed the last meeting note this date.

Please put all these dates in your new diary!

Wenhaston Gardeners Club

With coat tails flying, Lucy Redman swept into the Hall last month. So what if the slide projector wasn't working - she brought with her a bottomless basket of delights and her boundless enthusiasm.

A Suffolk girl, she started gardening at her mother's knee and went on to make it her career encouraged along the way by a forward thinking school and several inspirational mentors. Now she runs courses from her own charming garden near Bury St Edmunds. But don't call her a garden designer - 'people say they don't know their plants, and I would hate that!' A plantswoman is what she most certainly is. As the specimens appeared out of the aforementioned basket she expounded on their virtues as we passed them around quite able to imagine the gorgeous plants they came from. Magic.

Two things to think about ahead of the January meeting. The order forms for the Thompson and Morgan seeds need to be handed in. And have a look through your photos, you might have a winning garden-themed gem to enter in the competition being held to launch the Queen's Jubilee celebrations.

Meanwhile, this month we have the Christmas Party on Tuesday December 13th. Tickets are £7.50 and are available from the Post Office, Tony Gow and Andy Norris. Hope to see you there.

Wenhaston Parish Transport Survey

The Village Action Plan Team would like your help! We're trying to build up a picture of where people in Wenhaston want to travel to and for what purpose - eg shopping, work, leisure etc. and when and how often they would like to make these journeys by public transport.

Enclosed in this month's Word is a survey form. Please help us by filling it in for all members of your household as accurately as you can, putting any additional information in the 'comments' box. Do include your name and contact details if you'd be happy for someone to get in touch with you.

When you've finished please return the form to Wenhaston PO, Blythweb or The Star by Friday December 16. Many thanks...

Top Dog Grooming Salon

If you see a line of dogs - all breeds, shapes and sizes - padding towards Holton, don't be surprised. Dogs are intelligent and can sniff out anything interesting. The focus of attention here isn't a marrowbone, but the newly-opened and well-equipped Top Dog Grooming Salon, where dogs can go to be washed, clipped, styled and have ears and nails attended to. Your dog will emerge looking, feeling and smelling a million dollars, though the fee is very modest.

Paula has always wanted to open a grooming salon, and after training at Dapper Dogs, Norwich, she has set up a one-woman business, dedicated to giving pets and their owners a service which combines expertise with kindness.

She has now almost got over wishing to keep her lovely customers for herself (the dogs, not the owners).

AGM Wednesday 2nd November. We began with our annual rendition of 'Jerusalem'. Jane Gamble, President, welcomed 38 of our 54 members, 2 visitors and Gwyneth Harris, Adviser from Suffolk East Federation of Women's Institutes.

After a few notices, Margaret Goldstone, Treasurer, explained the financial report. The accounts were adopted and Margaret thanked for her meticulous work.

Helen Bowyer, Secretary, outlined many activities, including book clubs, darts and Scrabble, which have taken place during 2011. Highlights included the summer garden party in Ros and Clive Curteis' lovely garden and theatre trips organised by Cathy Harrison. The Diners' Club has enjoyed meals at a variety of venues. Notable is the Gravestone Project, where members have recorded details from the gravestones in St. Peter's churchyard, the war memorial and are completing recording those in the cemetery. This work, much praised, can be viewed on our web site, www.wenhastonwi.org.uk or in one of three folders held at St. Peter's Church. Charitable work included making 27 knitted blankets and filling 12 shoe boxes with small items for Rumanian children. Members who organised these and many other activities were thanked.

The 2012 committee of nine members was agreed. Gwyneth led the thanks to Jane and gave a brief address. Jane, who is standing down, thanked the committee and members for their support. Gwyneth organised the ballot for our new President – Christine Buttle was duly elected - and congratulated us on another successful year.

Viv Kemp gave the vote of thanks to the officers, committee and various sub-committees that make our WI so active.

To end a busy evening, members enjoyed the usual raffle, refreshments and social time.

Award For Andrew

On 16th November Andrew Taylor proudly received an award at Wenhaston Village Hall for his 50th donation of blood. Well Done Andrew! Andrew is now resident in Beccles but well known to many in Wenhaston from when he lived near the Methodist Chapel.

Andrew described the news that he would be receiving an award as "brilliant", and thanked his family for supporting him throughout his time as a blood donor. Andrew has a simple message for anyone thinking about becoming a blood donor themselves, "Just go for it, donating blood is an experience out of this world."

Anyone aged between 17 - 65, weighing more than 50 kg (7 stone 12lbs) and in general good health could become a blood donor. To book an appointment call the Donor Line on 0300 123 23 23 or visit www.blood.co.uk. The next session at Wenhaston Village Hall will be on Thursday 15th December 2011.

Wenhaston Energy Support Group

New Year rings the changes

Wenhaston Energy Support Group has decided to welcome in the New Year with an open meeting. This will take place on Tuesday 17 January at 7pm in the Committee Room at the village hall and Ann Edwards will be taking on the chair from Janet Dillaway.

The group is already broadening its horizons through contact with Wenhaston Commons Group and the Gardeners' Club and would like to forge links with anyone interested in green issues and energy efficiency.

Two vintage portable typewriters, murder mystery games, lots of cat food, a xylophone, ship in a bottle, surf boards, new bed and a boomerang were just a few of the many and varied items that were available at the group's recent Give and Take Day.

This very successful re-cycling exercise, organised by WESG secretary Janice Claxton, still managed to baffle some of the many visitors to the village hall. The concept of just 'taking' items without payment and even without bringing anything often had to be explained. But the idea behind the Give and Take days is to recycle as many items as possible and prevent everything going to landfill sites.

Another similar event is planned for next March.

The two-week thermal camera trial took place in November with 15 households involved. A trained team of operatives, armed with a camera loaned by East Bergholt Society, photographed homes and fed back the data produced to enable residents to make their homes more energy efficient.

Mothers' Union

At this time of year, the Mothers' Union decides upon which MU charities to donate to and this year we will give away approx. £200 to Mothers' Union Overseas, which helps to fund the helpers who are employed to teach literacy and household management among other things, to the Relief Fund for emergencies such as famine, earthquakes etc, and to AFIA - which sends people on holiday who would otherwise be unable to afford one. We hope and trust that our small gift will make a little difference.

Our speaker, Alison Evans, who lives locally and is a music teacher, spoke of her experience of working for a month at a time at the Amasango Career School in Grahamstown in the East Cape of South Africa. Alison said that her friend Mamma Jane started the school because there were so many street children in the area, which has 200,000 citizens living in a township on the poorer side of the town. She started off in a container lorry with a handful of children, and now has 140 who are taught in three disused railway sheds. She always feeds them first, then comes the tuition, and she also manages to clothe them. Most of the funding comes from the UK and we all agreed that they are much to be admired for their dedication and compassion.

We will have a Mystery Parcel Stall at the Village Bazaar, so please let us have small parcels of up to £1 in value, labelled with price and who they would be suitable for. Thank you.

Our Christmas Party is on Wednesday December 14th at 3pm in the Church Room, Please would members bring a small plate of food to share, and you are welcome to bring a friend.

Wenhaston Mothers' Union wishes one and all a blessed and peaceful Christmas.

Dog Mess

Further to the correspondence in the Word the last two months. Wenhaston Post Office has supplies of dog poo bags provided by the council and they are FREE. There is no excuse for leaving mess where anyone including children can tread in it. It is unsightly and unhealthy and spoils our village.
