

1066 – A Tale of Two Halves

By Sarah Corbett, Andy Durham and Phil Corbett

There are two sides to every story. October 14th 1066 - the most famous of dates in English History and the inspiration for award-winning Oskar Foxtrot Production's latest new musical. Undeniably a moment when England's history changed direction, the Battle Of Hastings still divides historians over its causes and legacy, but Oskar Foxtrot's treatment of the story explores personal dramas as much as the battle itself. The production shows the famed events through the perspectives of the key protagonists, William the Conqueror and Harold Godwinson using the events depicted on the Bayeux Tapestry as inspiration.

1066 is a brand new musical written by a family team which has collaborated on seven musicals and this is the third time their work has played in the Halesworth area. Oskar Foxtrot's writers, who come from Wenhaston and Ipswich have written about a multitude of unusual musical subjects like the cloning debate, the eruption of Pompeii and the Cuban Missile crisis, and this year their treatment of the era of William the Conqueror promises to be of interest to all, delving further into one of the most famous events in English history and exploring it from two different viewpoints.

Oskar Foxtrot's band of musicians and performers will be playing on Church Common in Wenhaston on July 24th from 8pm with live music from 7:30pm and the audience are invited to bring rugs and chairs, picnics and drinks and insect repellent and to enjoy the story and music as the sun sets in the village. This is Oskar Foxtrot's first visit to Wenhaston since 2005's acclaimed Black Shuck which was nominated for two ESTAA theatre awards. Tickets are priced at £5, and are available from

The Wenhaston and District Branch meeting was held at The Star Inn on 11th June. Vice Chairman Derek Doy recited the Exhortation and the silence was observed.

Chairman Nelson Wright welcomed all to the meeting. We all sent our good wishes to Graham Holt, our President, who is in hospital at Ipswich. Margery Onyett was welcomed back after her operation.

The Chairman said it was a pity there was no mention of the RBL and the Standards in the local papers after the Suffolk Show. The Treasurer read the financial report. The motion no.20 and the motion of urgency no.19a at National Conference were discussed. There were thoughts for and against. We are awaiting a discussion on this at the Group Meeting Monday 8th July at Beccles RBL Club.

Member John Levy took the County Standard to both the Suffolk Show and the 'F and J Rally' at Framlingham. Sue Doy marshalled at both these events. Derek Doy led the Leiston RBL Band as Drum Major at the 'F and J Rally'.

Members were interested in tickets for the band concert at Halesworth Middle School on Friday 28th September. The Royal British Legion Newmarket Race Day is on Saturday 25th August.

A drink and a chat finished off the meeting.

'A Palace on Wheels' was the intriguing title of the talk given to us by Dr. Sandra Holmes.

Dressed in a sari, she illustrated her journey with the most beautiful slides of Rajasthan. The Palace on Wheels proved to be a monster of a steam train, which she told us had been made in Britain in the 1950's. Not only was she travelling in a palace, but she visited many palaces along the way. After a short history of northern India and some pictures of both Delhi and New Delhi we were, metaphorically speaking, taken on a journey through the country side terminating at Jaisalmer. This fascinating desert city of small winding streets has the most amazing architecture. The palaces that she visited along the way were stunning, the stonework carved into intricate patterns. Throughout her narrative she interspersed little nuggets of information, e.g. the red turbans that the men wore signified that they were from Rajasthan. That jodhpurs were an English adaptation of the men's traditional trousers that were tied up below the knee. Inevitably the talk finished with some slides of the Taj Mahal, a building which one can never tire of seeing. Several of our members had gone to the AGM, including our president, so Helen took the meeting with quiet efficiency. Violet excelled herself this month making nine lovely posies for our June birthdays.

Both of Marro's book clubs go from strength to strength. The books being read this month are; 'Beautiful Child' by Torey Hayden and 'The Night Watch' by Sarah Waters. Next month is our garden party, hopefully a sunny day as for the past few years it has rained - heavily! On a personal note, I would like to thank all the members who produced teapots and cake stands for a wedding that I was catering for. The bride was thrilled as was!!

Domesday.

In 1086 William 1 gave orders that a survey be carried out by which all land owners be listed. Wenhaston was listed separate from Mells. The owner of Wenhaston was Lord Alan the Red. A strong supporter of William at the Battle of Hastings he was rewarded with much land in England. He did not live here but his main home was Richmond Castle in Yorkshire. Mells was owned by Robert de Toden, a standard bearer at the Battle of Hastings. Again he did not live here but at Belvoir Castle in Lincolnshire. He built the castle on the hill and founded a Priory at the foot of the hill, where he was buried. Come the disbanding of the Priors, his stone coffin was taken up to the castle where one can see it (empty!) outside the door of the chapel. Wenhaston consisted of a wood for 16 swine, a mill and a church, and was inhabited by 6 Freemen, 3 Villeins and 16 Borders. Mells had 5 acres of meadow and wood for 100 swine and supported 8 Villeins and 12 Borders. All this would have produced a population of about 200. Keith Johnceline

Our Season finished with the First Team third and the Reserves eighth in their respective Divisions. The Reserves were also runners-up in the Harpers Cup, all in all a good Season which might have been better.

We held our Annual Dinner at Sizewell Sports Club with an attendance of seventy seven, an enjoyable evening in which presentations were made to:- Trevor Chenery, Toby Ball, Matt Summerfield, Marcus Allen and Neil Curtis.

The AGM has been and gone, we are pleased that everyone is continuing on the Committee with the addition of new Wenhaston resident Len Wagner. It is this continuity that has enabled the Club to win the League Administration Award for the third Season running - an award based on marks given by Referees throughout the Season.

We look forward to next Season and will advise details of friendlies a.s.a.p.

On a day when rain was forecast, but which stayed warm and sunny, a party of members visited Helmingham Hall in place of our usual monthly meeting. The garden was a blaze of colour, in such a tranquil setting, much enjoyed. After a leisurely stroll round, a cup of tea and a piece of cake were very welcome.

In July, there are two exciting meetings. The first is the Archdeaconry Garden Meeting at Westleton on Saturday 7th, when we shall visit the garden of The Barn by kind invitation of Mr and Mrs Turner. There will be a Eucharist at 2:00pm, a tour of the garden at 3:00pm, and we shall enjoy our own picnic tea at 4:00pm, and tour the stalls provided by the Deaneries. It should be a very interesting afternoon and members are urged to make the effort to attend. Then on the 11th July we shall have our annual Garden Meeting, this year at Meresig, Back Road, by kind invitation of Mr and Mrs Gamble. The meeting will commence at 3:00pm, and should be a fun afternoon - please bring a small amount of food to share, and we are praying for good weather!

Could You Help a Local Child?

Could you, or a family member or friend, consider fostering a local child? As parents, we know how much children depend on a stable, caring family home life. Unfortunately, some children can't rely on their own family and about 700 are being looked after by Suffolk County Council. Usually, these children will live with a foster carer either for a few weeks or perhaps for much longer. But there aren't enough people in Suffolk coming forward as carers, so some children are losing out.

There are only around 300 local foster carers. Many more carers are still needed. It's a chance to make a big positive difference to someone's life - how often do we get that chance?

Please do consider whether you could offer your help. You will be paid the going rate and have great support.

To find out more about becoming a foster carer, please contact Rosie Clarke, a County Councillor, on 01394 412178 or email her at rosemary.clarke@suffolkcc.gov.uk.

Alternatively call 0800 328 2148 or log on to www.suffolkfostering.com.

Erratum

Congratulations to those of you who have spotted the small mistakes to do with information about the Village Hall, in the enclosed leaflet advertising the Open Garden and Bargain Sale on Saturday 21st July 10:00am - 4:00pm. The Hall was opened for 1975. Although the Eastern Angles have not performed for a while at the Hall, it has been used by Circle 67 and other theatre groups. Apologies for these errors.
